RE; Polelle v. Byrd, No. 22-14031JJ

FRAP Rule 28 (j) letter

Dear Mr. Smith

On January 10, 2024 a colleague called to my attention the pertinent and significant authority of Bachur v. Democratic Nat. Party, 836 F.2d 837, 840 (11th Cir.1994).

The reason for this supplemental citation relates to Argument II (traditional standing) on page 10 of Polelle's opening brief.

The case stands for the proposition that "a voter in his capacity as sole plaintiff," has standing in his own right to raise "whatever rights he possesses and that is enough to present us with the merits of this controversy.” This Court noted that Bachur, the plaintiff, “unquestionably” had standing in his own right.

The undersigned has sent a copy of this letter to all other parties.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Polelle

Plaintiff-Appellant, Pro Se
